

Ninni Zinober

• ninni.zinober@eui.eu • LinkedIn • +47 951 37 122 •

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Comparative Political Economy, Regulation and Governance, Green Criminology, Animal Welfare and Environmental Politics.

EDUCATION

European University Institute Oslo, Norway
PhD, Department of Political and Social Sciences 2023 – 2025

- My dissertation examines the regulation of the Norwegian salmon farming industry, focusing on how regulatory dynamics and political processes shape the governance of a rapidly growing industry.
- Advanced level courses in methods, research fields and theory
- Supervisor: Tasha Fairfield

University of Oslo Oslo, Norway
Master's in criminology, Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law 2023 – 2025

- Master thesis where I utilized discourse network analysis to understand the political debate surrounding salmon farming in Norway in a cultural green criminological perspective
- Advanced level courses in criminological theory and methodology
- Supervisors; Prof. Katja Franko & PhD. Martin Nøkleberg

University of Oslo Oslo, Norway
Bachelor's in criminology, Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law 2020 – 2024

- Courses in criminological theory and methodology
- Writing a bachelor thesis in the field of green criminology about pig farming in Norway

Oslo Metropolitan University Oslo, Norway
Bachelor's in social work, Faculty of Social Sciences 2017 – 2020

- Practice- and theory oriented professional studies in social work
- Learning relevant skills for the social worker profession such as empathic communication skills and navigating relevant legislation
- Academic courses in social sciences, mainly sociology and psychology

SELECTED WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Oslo

Oslo, Norway

Research Assistant, CRIMKNOW-project, Dep. of Crim, and Soc. of Law April 2024 – Present

- Master thesis being part of the research project CRIMKNOW
- Working with a PhD fellow on a citation network analysis
- Administrative and academic assistance, such as developing the project webpage and transcribing

University of Oslo

Oslo, Norway

Colloquium leader, Dep. of Crim, and Soc. of Law April 2024 – Present

- Leading a colloquium with first year criminology students
- Assisting students in organizing their studies
- Teaching students study techniques and colloquium activities

NAV Nordre Aker, Oslo

Oslo, Norway

Social consultant, Social services Nov. 2021 – Dec. 2022

- Assessing applications for social services
- Follow-up of long-term clients
- Skills: communication, financial advising, coordination of welfare services

Oslo Metropolitan University, Oslo

Oslo, Norway

Student mentor, Facilitation services Nov. 2021 – Dec. 2022

- Follow-up of students in need of facilitation
- One-on-one meeting with students
- Skills: communication and facilitation

PUBLICATIONS

Zinober, N. E. (Forthcoming 2026). "The Language of Suffering: Discourses of Pig Farming and Welfare in Norway." In H. J. Ohldieck & P. Fjågesund (Eds.), Animals in the Anthropocene. Solum Bokvennen.

UNDER REVIEW

Zinober, N. E. & Nøkleberg, M. "Scalded, but Not a Scandal? Thermal Delousing and the Quiet Politics of Norwegian Salmon Farming."

ACADEMIC SERVICE

EUI SPS PhD Researcher Representative

2026

Elected to represent PhD Researchers in various committees

Committee of gender balance and diversity in research (KIF-komiteen) Student member	2024-2026
---	-----------

Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law, University of Oslo Student representative, Program council	2024-2025
--	-----------